

Regulatory Remediation Solutions

Stay ahead of regulatory change

Contracts remediation powered by generative AI

Regulatory change hits business hard: thousands of contracts and policies need to be reviewed, while updates and renegotiations absorb process, team and management time. Without the right partners and technology, the scale of the challenge can be overwhelming for the in-house team.

Integreon deploys ContractPodAi's Leah Legal Copilot, to provide:

- Expert process resourcing, management and technology optimization on demand, at scale and at low cost;
- An array of GenAI modules designed for remediation programs, enhancing human performance exponentially.
