Corporate Legal at an Inflection Point

Legal departments are managing increasing complexity and regulatory risk while under pressure to:

- Do more with constrained budgets
- Enable AI adoption responsibly
- Reduce litigation overspend and budget surprises
- Retain talent amid rising workloads
- Deliver measurable value to the business

Simply sending overflow work to law firms or hiring more internal resources without appropriate work segmentation can lead to increased costs without resolving underlying inefficiencies. The result? Overspending, burnout, missed technology opportunities, and suboptimal outcomes.

The Alternative Legal Services Platform (ALSP) Advantage

ALSPs integrate process, technology, and expert delivery resources to handle legal work at a cost, scale, and efficiency not achievable through law firms or in-house teams alone.

Where ALSPs Deliver the Most Value

- ✓ Repeatable, standardized work, at scale
- ✓ Disaggregated tasks within large matters (M&A, litigation, investigations)
- ✓ Technology-enabled workflows (CLM, review platforms, AI tools)
- ✓ Centralized, cross-border delivery
- ✓ Fixed-fee or per-unit pricing environments

Legal Department Transformation That Pays for Itself

By segmenting work based on risk, complexity, and value, Integreon ensures the right work is performed by the right resources, in the right location, at the right cost.

Near-Term Savings

- Sourcing optimization
- Automation and self-service
- Productivity improvements
- Improved outside counsel management
